Q : How do you account for the FBI undermining justice?

04:01:08

LAST NAME : Well, I think, um, if we look at the FBI as a human enterprise, they're just a bunch of people trying to do something extraordinary, and they're gonna fail, and the, if they fail, the consequences of that failure, uh, are pretty, pretty horrendous in their minds, and so they'll do anything to avoid failing.

Q : Can you do that ending again?

04:02:03

LAST NAME : Yes, what was happening in the FBI lab, um, was an example of really what was happening throughout the FBI, in my opinion, uh, a culture that had essentially taken on a supreme arrogance without any oversight to it.

Q : Ambition overrode the goals of the FBI?

04:02:32

LAST NAME : Well, I think a- ambition is one thing, but also the pressures. //END OF FILE
